5 Rescued, 10 Found Dead in Utah Mine

By REID G. MILLER

MOAB, Utah (AP)—Five more trapped miners were rescued alive and in good condition Thursday night, but 10 others were found dead.

The final toll was 18 killed. Seven survived; two were rescued earlier.

The five found Thursday night were in surprisingly good condition in the same deep tunnel from which the other two escaped Wednesday morning, the day after 25 miners were caught 3,000 feet down by an explosion.

Eight men were already known dead when two rescue teams started a now-or-never search for the remaining 15 late in the afternoon.

Within 10 minutes, June Crawford, chief engineer of the Texas Gulf Sulphur Co., owner of the potash mine, announced emotionally: Five survivors have been found in the east shaft. The men are walking out of that drift!

Then up they came by the lift, grimy but smiling, in such good condition there was little need of treatment. And one of them, Grant Eslick, said: Sure I'm ready to go back to mining.

Three hours after the rescue Crawford had to tell the tearful wives and parents still waiting by the mine what most of them had feared: The last 10 men in the other tunnel where the blast occurred were dead.

Amid some miners' charges that safety precautions were lax at the mine plans were announced for a joint state-federal investigation starting Monday. A state official said: We'll subpoena and question everyone who might have anything to say.

The last five survivors owed their lives to the first two and their own makeshift barricades that kept out deadly gases while they awaited rescue.

When Paul McKinney and Donald Hanna started out the tunnel toward safety Wednesday, they came across a ruptured air line leading back to the other five. They paused to fix it, weren't able to get the ends completely together, but came close. It was enough.

Thomas Trueman of Toronto, Canada, trapped himself up on one elbow in a hospital bed, turned to Hanna in the same room, and said:

You may have got us only a little air with that patch job on the line, but boy it was enough.

Child Is Killed at Nashville

NASHVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Joe Pruitt, 5, of Murfreesboro, was killed Thursday night when a careening truck skidded into the car in which he was riding, two miles west of Mineral Springs.

The child's mother, Mrs. Wayne Pruitt, 30, was injured, but her daughter, Mary Sue 2, escaped unharmed. The truck driver R. W. Malone, 22, of Memphis, and a passenger in the truck, Benjamin Britt 19 were not injured.

State Trooper Wallace Parnell said Malone lost control of the truck which skidded 231 feet before striking the Pruitt auto on a bridge.

Turncoat Disillusioned With China

HONG KONG (AP)—Albert Belhomme, a U.S. Army turncoat in the Korean War, came out of Red China today, disillusioned with communism.

The former sergeant from Ashland, Pa., entered Hong Kong accompanied by his Chinese wife, Hsio Ying, 28 and their three sons ranging from 1 to 6 years. All looked fit and happy.

Belhomme, 34-year-old native of Belgium, said he planned to take his family to Antwerp, Belgium, in a few days. He said his mother still lives at Ashland.

He was the second turncoat to cross the border this month after nearly 10 years in Communist China. The other Lowell Skinner of Akron, Ohio, left his Chinese wife behind and returned to the United States.

I was burned politically," Belhomme told newsmen at the border. I was politically disillusioned.

My main concern now is my family. I want my children to have a future.

123 Negroes Enroll at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Schools open at Little Rock today with 123 Negro students—46 more than last year—attending once all-white schools.

No trouble is expected, school officials said.

The Little Rock School Board moved this year to integrate elementary grades for the first time, assigning 15 Negroes to first and fourth grades in seven schools.

There will be 33 Negro students in Little Rock Central High School, where integration first began in the city, in 1957.

Two other central Arkansas cities, Hot Springs and Pine Bluff, will open the fall term with integrated classes.

The Hot Springs School Board voted Wednesday to admit eight students to previously all-white schools. Six Negroes will attend first and second grades in Pine Bluff.

A group calling itself the Education Committee for the Council on Community Affairs presented a six-point plan for stepped up integration to the Little Rock board Thursday. The plan was taken under advisement, with no date of possible action on it announced.

Injunction Hearing Set

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—A hearing has been set Sept. 6 on a motion to dissolve an injunction restraining Mrs. Carleen Gail Oehler of St. Louis from appearing on the premises of McDonald's Drive-in restaurant.

Chancellor Lawrence Dawson set the date of the hearing for the 25-year-old white woman, named as a defendant in a complaint and injunction issued by the chancellor on request of the drive-in owner, Robert Knight.

Dawson had previously continued a restraining order against a group of Negroes and one white man named as defendants and given them 20 days to appeal to a higher court.

Knight's request for the restraining order came after several anti-segregation demonstrations at the drive-in.

Mail Clerk Is on Probation

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Jonesboro mail clerk Roy V. Greenwood, 31, was placed on 30 months probation Thursday in Federal District Court for stealing some 30 letters from the Jonesboro post office.

He had pleaded guilty to the charge.

Greenwood was arrested June 25. The letters stolen were addressed to charitable organizations.

STABBED TO DEATH — Career girls Janice Wyllie, left, and Emily Hoffert were found stabbed to death and tied together in their swank East Side apartment in New York. Police said they have no motive, no suspect, and no leads in the killings. Miss Wyllie, niece of author Philip Wyllie, was an aspiring actress, and Miss Hoffert was to begin teaching school in September.

Attitude of Russia May Change

By ANTHONY WHITE

MOSCOW (AP)—Western diplomats breathlessly reported signs today of what could be a revolutionary change in Soviet attitudes to the West.

They said Soviet officials have been sounding them out on how to build a golf course.

It seemed final proof that the long East-West cold war was really on the thaw.

Golf always has been reviled and ridiculed in the Soviet Union as the acme of bourgeois decadence. Former Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov once said:

Golf is not a proletarian game. It is only for the rich.

Golf never is played in the Soviet Union, for a good reason: There are no golf courses.

A West European envoy reported that Soviet recreation organization officials, running a fashionable retreat north of the Moscow have been asking Westerners how you go about building a golf course.

Of course we were delighted to help," the envoy said. So we advised that the best thing to do would be to find a qualified golf course designer.

Sadist Is Sought for 2 Murders

NEW YORK (AP)—A sadist was sought today as the slayer who butchered two career girls in their apartment.

Police apparently had no solid clues, but they leaned to the theory that the killer was the man who had made obscene and threatening telephone calls to one of the victims — Janice Wyllie, a pretty blonde researcher for Newsweek magazine.

Miss Wyllie's father, writer Max Wyllie, said he thought the caller was maybe a crazy kid who saw a pretty pair of legs.

The bodies of Miss Wyllie, 21, and Emily Hoffert, 22, were found in their $250-a-month apartment by Wyllie Wednesday night.

Detectives figure the slayer who got into the apartment by means unknown, killed Miss Wyllie first; that Miss Hoffert arrived home to find the murderer still there, and was killed to eliminate her as a witness.

Miss Wyllie's body was nude, Miss Hoffert's was fully clothed. The bodies were found together with torn strips of sheets.

Wyllie, brother of author Philip Wyllie, said Thursday he knew of two crank phone calls to his daughter the last one about 10 days ago and his wife thought there were three.

Miss Wyllie and Miss Hoffert, daughter of Dr. Henry E. Hoffert, a surgeon in Minneapolis, shared the apartment in a fashionable East Side neighborhood with Patricia Tolles, 21.

Dr. Milton Halpern, chief city medical examiner, said preliminary autopsies produced no obvious evidence that either girl was raped.

Each girl had been stabbed repeatedly in the chest, abdomen and neck.

Forestry Queen to Be Picked

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A new Arkansas Forest Queen will be chosen Saturday night from the five district winners.

They are Lucinda Williams of Harrison, northwest district; Judy Ann Bridger of Jonesboro, north-central; Helen Herrod of Crossett, southeast; Judy Stephens of De Queen, southwest and Donna McFall of Searcy, central.

Activities leading up to selection of the new queen began today.

Ministers, Police Hit With Eggs

FOLCROFT, Pa. (AP)—State policemen and four white ministers were pelted with eggs and stones and two persons were arrested today as violence flared briefly among a crowd of 200, many of them children, who milled around a home in an all-white neighborhood awaiting the arrival of a Negro family that bought it.

One man jumped on the hood of a police car. As troopers grabbed him, some demonstrators jeered and yelled nigger lovers and police brutality while others hurled the eggs.

A teen-age boy was arrested for throwing stones.

Horace and Sara Baker, who tried three times Thursday to get into their home, were expected back today, but Maj. Singleton Sheaffer, of the state police said business delayed them.

Auto Theft Ring Trial Continues

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Government testimony in the trial of two men charged in connection with the operation of an alleged auto theft ring continued today.

Four of six men charged in the case have pleaded guilty to at least one count. Two others were sentenced last February in Ohio after entering guilty pleas.

Joseph Francis Newman, 59, of Akron, Ohio, and Forrest D. Carson 54 of Hot Springs are on trial.

Roy Edward Paulson, 38, of Hot Springs and William Palmer, 36, of Talmadge Ohio pleaded guilty Wednesday. Winfred Lee Angel 41, of Hot Springs changed his plea Thursday to guilty. D. L. Mooney, 51, also of Hot Springs, pleaded guilty Wednesday to a charge of conspiracy in connection with the ring, but a charge against him of receiving and transporting stolen cars was dismissed.

Darius Woody and Foster Imhof, both of Akron, were the two sentenced last February, in Ohio. The government put Paulson and Palmer on the stand Thursday. Both men testified they had been involved. Paulson said he and Angel went from Hot Springs to Akron and returned a car delivered to them by Imhof.

Paulson said he sold a number of the cars in question in the case while working as a used car salesman at Hot Springs.

Castro Scared of Invasion, Nation Alerted

By DANEIL HARKER

Associated Press Staff Writer

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government put its armed forces on a state of alert today and posted bigger concentrations of soldiers and militiamen at strategic points throughout Havana.

Armed forces had been put into a state of preparation "Thursday, but beefed-up military measures were reported then only outside the capital and not in Havana.

The new moves followed intelligence reports of possible incursions by anti-Castro exiles against installations on the North Coast. According to military intelligence, these raids would be somewhat larger than the hit-and-run attacks made by exiles recently.

(At this point, telephone connection between New York and Havana was cut, presumably by censorship. Earlier dispatches from Havana had reported the following:)

Sources said Thursday night the alert had been in effect since Monday. The military was understood to be watching particularly for any attack from Nicaragua or other Central-American nations which have offered refuge to anti-Castro exiles.

In San Jose, Costa Rica, reports circulated of unusual activity among Cuban exiles in Costa Rica and Nicaragua. Manuel Artime, refugee leader who participated in the abortive Bay of Pigs invasion in April 1961, arrived in Managua, Nicaragua, to confer with anti-Castro exiles, sources said.

The Cuban command apparently braced for a repetition of a recent series of hit-and-run raids. The last occurred Aug. 19 at a metal plant on the north coast, where there are many oil refineries and factories.

The Castro government has accused the United States of being directly responsible for the raids. It said the forays proved there was a new plan of aggression against Cuba and said Cuban defenses would be strengthened.

A spokesman for a Cuban exile group called Mambises Comandos told newsmen in Guatemala City his organization made the Aug. 19 raid. He said the commandos operated from secret bases in the Caribbean and from inside Cuba.

Cuban refugees arriving in Florida have reported Soviet troop activity in the Cuban capital. They said bridges and strategic points around Havana have been taken over by Soviet soldiers, causing some apprehension among Fidel Castro's forces.

At a news conference Aug. 20, President Kennedy said there had been a further decline in the number of Soviet troops in Cuba the last few months, but added it was difficult to say how many remained.

Kennedy said the primary emphasis of the remaining troops apparently was for training purposes and not as concentrated military units.

New Geometry books will be available at the school office.

The students will be dismissed from school on Tuesday, Sept. 3 at 1:30 p. m.

Defiant Students Return to U.S. After Visit to Cuba and Many Are Still Defiant

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty American students who defied a State Department ban on travel to Cuba returned by plane from Madrid Thursday night, many of them still defiant of U.S. policies.

Some of the students staged a stand-in at Idlewild Airport to protest a government announcement that their passports would be invalidated.

The stand-in ended two hours later when they were told their passports would not be marked invalid. However, each student was presented with a State Department letter noting that his or her passport had been suspended because of the trip to Cuba.

We consider this another victory," said Lee Levi Laub of New York, a former Columbia University student.

Ten of the students were subpoenaed to appear Sept. 12 before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

When the group left their plane, most of them walked into the Customs Building quietly.

But one student, not identified, fell to his knees and kissed the ground.

A spokesman for the group said five students decided not to take part in the Idlewild demonstration. The spokesman added that only about five disliked what they saw in Cuba.

Larry Phelps, one of those served with a subpoena, said he is from North Carolina and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

I can't understand why I was served," Phelps said. Of course, I'll have to go there (Washington).

Philip Luce of New York City contended that in going to Cuba the students had exercised their constitutional rights and had violated no rules or laws. He referred to the Cuban visit as a magnificent experience to all.

The United States restricts travel to Cuba, with which it has no diplomatic relations.

Richard Thorne of Berkeley, Calif., a Negro, told newsmen, I saw schools in Cuba and no discrimination. The party leaders were honest.

Don Rainman, a University of California student, remarked: The people have an unprecedented enthusiasm for Fidel Castro. They have not lost their zeal for the revolution.

The students who originally numbered 59, went first to Czechoslovakia, then Havana. They went to Madrid from Havana last Sunday.

Of the original 59, one died in Cuba, three remained there, one returned earlier to Boston, and four decided to stay in Madrid a bit longer.

Concerning the invalidation of their passports Clark Foreman, director of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, said the courts would have to decide whether such a procedure was legal.

Injunction Asked of Pollution Group

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Water Pollution Control Commission asked Union Chancery Court Thursday to issue an injunction against two oil well operators, forbidding them from operating wells in Arkansas.

The injunction said the Gray Wolfe Co., a Delaware firm, and O. B. Daniels had been draining salt water into the lower Ouachita River in violation of a commission act which prohibits draining of salt water into freshwater lakes and rivers.

Both operators have wells in the Smackover area. The suit asked preliminary and permanent injunctions against them until they had requested disposal permits from the commission.

Republicans Lay Blame to Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate-House Republican leadership asserted today that if bipartisan support for foreign aid has been destroyed, President Kennedy destroyed it by blaming the GOP for drastic House cuts.

The Republican leadership, in a joint statement, challenged Kennedy's recent characterization of the House slash from $4.1 to $3.5 billion in the foreign aid program as shortsighted, unwise and dangerously partisan.

The group, headed by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, of Illinois, Senate Republican leader and Rep. Charles A. Halleck R-Ind., GOP leader in the House, said 66 House Democrats, or better than 1 out of 4, joined Republicans in cutting the program.

In the statement, issued shortly after Kennedy appealed at Hyannis Port, Mass., for Senate restoration of the reductions the Republicans declared:

If bipartisan support of the foreign aid program has now been destroyed—to use President Kennedy's word—it was Mr. Kennedy's own unwise statement which destroyed it.

It would have better become the office of the presidency had Mr. Kennedy at the same time noted that 66 Democrats, or better than 1 out of 4, also voted to cut the program. Instead he singled out only Republicans who are outnumbered in the House 258 to 177.

Man to Enter Cavern, Seeks Third Miner

By STANFORD H. BENJAMIN

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—A man will be lowered today down the escape hole from where miners David Fellin and Henry Throne were rescued Tuesday to see if Louis Bova is in the same cavern 308 feet underground.

H. B. Charnbury, state secretary of mines, said the decision was made after a television camera lowered into the chamber showed what appears to be a man's body.

Charnbury, at the scene of the mine in nearby Shepton, told a news conference as a result of seeing the television this morning it was decided, though there was not unanimous agreement, that we think we have enough evidence for someone to go down the hole.

The plans are in motion and someone has been chosen," he said, adding the identity of the man — a pretty husky boy — would be kept secret for the present.

Charnbury said he hoped the descent down the 17½ inch wide shaft would be made this afternoon, at a time still undetermined.

Charnbury had visited Fellin, 58, in his room at the Hazleton State Hospital before dawn today and showed him six pictures. These were of the cubicle where the two miners had waited for 14 days until they were pulled to the surface Tuesday.

Fellin could not be reached directly for comment.

Ira Mills state commissioner of hospitals, said Fellin told me later I don't feel so good and is definitely very confused now.

Charnbury and Mills both said that Fellin was not about the spotting of the body or image of a man in the TV picture.

Charnbury said the camera, raised up from the 308-foot shaft was being re-adjusted and would again be lowered into the hole for a closer look at the object.

The unidentified object first was sighted early today by Don Bova, a brother of the miner missing since the cave-in,

Man to Enter

they were and separated by a wall of coal and debris.
The TV camera had sent back pictures of remarkable clarity.
As Charnbury described it, the TV picture appeared to show a man propped up against a wooden mine support.

Charnbury said that what appeared to be a miner's helmet was on the head and there seemed to be a pair of boots with legs in them.
"I couldn't believe what I saw," Charnbury said. I was shocked.

Hopes of finding Bova apparently remained mostly in the big hole drilled to a spot where Fellin had estimated Bova might be found. Five holes have been drilled around that area, hitting voids at various levels. Each void is believed to be a side tunnel off the main mine shaft.

From Hazleton State Hospital, Fellin, Throne and their families issued a statement saying they were eternally grateful to all the people who worked both in official and unofficial capacities for thousands of hours in order to rescue us.

Nowhere else but in this great country of ours would you find people uniting to help two simple coal miners," they said.
God bless you all. We will never forget it."

Western Union Office Robbed

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—The Texarkana Western Union was held up Thursday night by a man wearing a heavy green sweater and carrying a sawed-off shotgun but the lone employee on duty said not much money was taken.

The employee, Clenton Fettes, said the man told him he wanted to send a message, took a form, wrote a note demanding money, then pulled the shotgun from beneath his trousers.

Fettes said the note read, "Give me all the money. No money business. These sawed-off shotguns sure make a mess of people."
Officer Garry Morrow of the Texarkana, Tex., police said it was believed the man remained on foot after leaving the scene.

Park Superintendent

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PEA RIDGE, Ark. (AP) — The National Parks System has named John T. Willett, first and only superintendent of PEA RIDGE National Military Park, superintendent of the Petersburg National Battlefield in Virginia. The PEA RIDGE Park was established three years ago. A successor to Willett was not named.

Show People See No Bad TV Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—There are no bad television shows. Some are just luckier than others.

At least that's the way it seems if one listens to discussions by producers, directors and stars. The most common cause of program mortality appears to be an ailment called bad time slot. This means that if a program failed in the late evening, it would have been the hit of the year on a Thursday.

Usually, however, it means that it was murdered by the competing program which attracted most of the viewers.
Never has a program died because it was too bad for the public. But television's Boot Hill is heavily populated with series that succumbed because, it is alleged, they were too good for the public.

Two program deaths last season were attributed to this fatal ailment: It's a Man's World and the Merv Griffin Show."

By general agreement, the best television horse opera made was a short-lived series called The Westerner. It succumbed, according to most expert diagnoses, because, the same experts assert, they were too fanciful.

Now on the eve of a new television season, schedules are being studied meticulously, and chances for survival of new shows are being anxiously weighed. Some — a very few — will be hits and some will quietly disappear. Survival will be attributed, as usual, to superior quality. Failure, as usual, will be nothing but bad luck poor position or that unappreciative public.

Arthur Godfrey will do a special for NBC — a Thanksgiving program. The veteran performer after all those years as a CBS star, now is free to make television appearances on other networks, and is anxious to get a regular, weekly series.

DOROTHY DIX

CAN AN ICEBERG BE MELTED
By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My Husband is the cold fish type—by his own admission. We were married five years ago, live comfortably, have a baby boy and, from the outside looking in, appear happy. The opposite is true. My son and I might as well be nonexistent for all the love and attention we get from the iceberg camouflaged as father and husband.

His indifference chilly matter-of-fact attitude and dead-pan reaction to anything I do or say make me feel dejected and unloved.

Being warm-hearted, affectionate and outgoing, I crave affection in return. My husband gave it to me the first year of our marriage but gradually withdrew until I, not he, was the aggressor. I'm the kind who talks everything out. But I might as well try to reason with a stone as talk to my husband about the ever-widening breach between us. If, when frustrated beyond endurance, I argue, he sits there like a mummy mouth clamped shut.

How can I reach this bleak, wintry character? If it weren't for the baby I would have left him long ago. —Frustrated.

Dear Frustrated: Cold fish, iceberg, stone and mummy—so your husband appears to you.

Of all these characterizations the iceberg is the most apt. Seven-eighths of an iceberg are below the water's surface, out of sight. Your husband's lack of affection and attention is the one-eighth you see of the deeper, more significant part of his personality. In order to change or modify the former you should try to understand the unseen seven-eighths.

This is a pretty tall order since you must analyze your own personality as well as his. Begin with your courtship days. What were you and he like then? How come you attracted each other? Honest, soul-searching answers to these questions will help you pinpoint the changes which have occurred in each of you as individuals, and in your effect upon one another. Since your husband was once affectionate, though not demonstrative, he is apparently capable of affection. But love and understanding have to be inspired. It may be that his inspiration flickered low for reasons which only you can determine.

Have you ever really stopped to figure out his basic personality? You seem to have a pretty good idea of your own. But many wives and husbands live under the same roof for years without ever being fully aware of one another's needs. Once you decide what they are, the next step is to answer the all-important question—are you satisfying his requirements?

When two personalities are out of tune, it's generally up to the wife to make the greater effort to restore harmony. She not only has the power to do it but the objective means more to her than it does to her husband. For further advice on this study my leaflets, "Ideal Wife" and "Ideal Husband," stamped, self-addressed envelope will bring them to you.

Dear Helen: I'm the sweeter girl type—Jayne Mansfield plus. Kids give me a bad time; wolf calls, yoo-hoos and what not. In desperation I bought a bra but the straps cut deep so I asked my aunt (my parents being dead) if I might cut the straps. She doubts that would be proper. What do you think? We both read your column. —Problem Girl.

Dear Problem: Buy a bra with adjustable straps, or a strapless one. Pay no attention to the wolf calls and yoo-hoos. Concentrate upon your studies, aim for straight A's and they'll turn into applause. Be that rarity, a girl who is both beautiful and intelligent.

Dear Helen: All our boy friends have cats or motor bikes but our mothers forbid us to ride with them. They think riding in a car dangerous and straddling a motor bike cheapening. We feel to turn down our boy friends' invitations would be rude. What should we do? —Troubled Teen.

Dear Troubled: Straddling a motor bike is not as cheapening as it is dangerous. I have read of too many horrible motor bike accidents ever to permit a daughter of mine to ride one. As for a car—that depends upon the maturity and experience of the driver. Having brought you into the world, and raised you, your parents' prime concern is preserving you! Also, there is the question of moral propriety. Proximity plus the right time and place, spells trouble for the girl.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Stiffer Athletic Requirements

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Little Rock School Board strengthened scholastic requirements for athletes Thursday night, voting 5-2 to require players to maintain a grade level that would allow them to graduate in the normal length of time.

Students, under the new rule, would have to maintain a D+ average at minimum to participate in athletics. Three grades of D+ and two of F+ were previously allowed.

The board also ruled that athletes cannot have any F+ grades if carrying only four subjects and that no F+ may be in a basic

Dodgers Get Runs, Boss Gets Haircut

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers finally got some runs, Sandy Koufax finally got his 20th victory and Arthur E. Patterson can finally get a haircut.

All of which feeds the growing suspicion that the Dodgers—who have developed an acute shortness of breath the past two Septembers—may finally win a pennant.

In the opener of a four-game series expected to draw more than 200,000 fans, the Dodgers matched their highest run total of the season and increased their National League lead to 6½ games Thursday night by belting second-place San Francisco 11-1.

Koufax, who never before had won more than 18 games in a season, became the first 20-game winner in the majors this year by pitching a three-hitter.

And Patterson, the Dodgers' assistant general manager, was free to see his barber, with whom he had vowed to transact no business until the Dodgers scored four runs in an inning.

This will be the first September in several years that Patterson has had his hair professionally groomed. He usually spends the month tearing it out.

The Giants, of course, are still not deceased Manager Alvin Dark said before Thursday's game that he figured his club would be in good shape if it won six of its seven remaining meetings with the Dodgers.

The Dodgers had not scored as many as 11 runs in any of their last 44 games. They had scored only 11 altogether in their last four.

This was a big game for us psychologically," said Dodger Manager Walter Alston. We've been having trouble with the bat and here come the Giants and we jumped all over them. This should pick the whole squad up."

Koufax, who had allowed only one run in each of his last two starts but had failed to figure in either decision, is the first Dodger left-hander to win 20 in a year since Preacher Roe turned the trick in 1951.

This is not so much a thrill as it is satisfaction," Koufax said. You get a thrill out of a no-hitter because it happens all the sudden. Winning 20 games is something you work on all season. When you get to 18, you know it's only two away. It doesn't jump at you."

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Evansville, Ind., won the Pony League baseball championship Thursday night by beating Canoga Park, Calif., 3-1 behind the pitching of Steve Lambert.

Twins Clobber Senators in Double Billing

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Even 225 miles away, Gil Hodges must have felt the shock waves.

Hodges was home in Brooklyn and the blasting went on in Washington, where Minnesota's muscular Twins clobbered his Senators for 12 homers among 35 assorted hits Thursday for a runaway doubleheader sweep, 14-2 and 10-1.

By having eight homers in the opener, the Twins matched a single game major league record, and by adding four more in the second game they picked up a pair of big league marks—15 for three consecutive games and 17 for four. They collected five in their doubleheader split at Washington Monday.

Between the doubleheaders, Hodges spent the two days off in Brooklyn—and was stuck there when he got hit by a virus. The Washington manager still was confined to his home when the Senators got hit by the Twins.

Rookie left-hander Gary Peters registered his 11th straight victory and smacked a two-run homer for the Chicago White Sox, who clipped Cleveland 7-2 and stayed in ahead of the Twins in their battle for second place in the American League.

Boston and Bill Monbouquette stopped New York's front-running Yankees, scoring on Elston Howard's passed ball in the ninth inning for a 4-3 decision. That left the Yanks 11 games ahead of the White Sox, with the Twins another one-half game behind in third.

In the AL's other game, Hank Aguirre fired a two-hitter and Al Kaline took over the league batting lead as the Detroit Tigers rolled to their eighth straight victory, 6-1 over the Los Angeles Angels. Kansas City and Baltimore were idle.

The Los Angeles Dodgers increased their National League lead to 6½ games, routing second-place San Francisco 11-1. Also in the NL, the Chicago Cubs nipped Philadelphia 2-1 and the New York Mets beat Pittsburgh 7-4.

Harmon Killebrew was Minnesota's biggest belter at Washington with three of the 12 homers, while Vic Power, Jim Hall and Bernie Allen each had two. Bob Allison, Rich Rollins and Zoilo Versalles added one apiece. The dozer was one shy of the major league high for two games.

Lee Stange, coasting behind a 20-hit offense, was the opening game winner. He held Washington scoreless until Ken Retzer homered with one on in the seventh. Dwight Seibler, a recent addition to the Twins staff, gave up only three hits in winning the second game.

Steelers and Lions Kick Off Grid Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Detroit's injury-battered Lions and the Pittsburgh Steelers collide tonight in the kickoff game of a busy Labor Day weekend of pro football exhibitions.

The Lions and the Steelers meet at Detroit in a rematch of their battle in last season's Playoff Bowl. Detroit won that game between the National Football League's division runners-up, 17-10.

In another NFL game tonight, the Dallas Cowboys will take on San Francisco's winless 49ers at Bakersfield, Calif.

Four more matches are on the NFL schedule for Saturday night. The Baltimore Colts, with a perfect 3-0 pre-season record, meet the Washington Redskins, 0-2, at Norfolk, Va. Minnesota's Vikings also 3-0, play the Philadelphia Eagles, 1-2, at Hershey Pa.; the Cleveland Browns 1-2, meet the Rams 1-2, at Los Angeles; and the St. Louis Cardinals 1-1, and Chicago Bears, 2-1, tangle in the annual Armed Forces game at Chicago.

All eight American Football League teams also will be in action.

Travelers, Buffalo Split Pair

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas managed a four-minute, one-inning, 2-0 shutout of Buffalo in an International League holdover baseball game, but dropped a nine-inning nightcap 8-6 Thursday.

In other league play Indianapolis downed Atlanta 2-0 in an afternoon affair but lost 7-3 in the nightcap. Richmond split a pair with Rochester, taking the first game 3-1 and losing the second 6-5. Columbus split with Jacksonville, 3-2 and 0-7 and Toronto downed Syracuse 6-2.

The Bisons got a head start on the Travelers in the regular game when 18-year-old outfielder Ed Kranepool slammed a 3-run homer in the first inning.

Four walks in a row given by two Traveler pitchers didn't help things and the Bisons' second inning, 5-0 lead was never seriously threatened.

Arkansas got 16 hits and scored in six of the nine innings.

Billy Smith and company faced only four men in completing the holdover game that was called June 26 because of time.

Elio Chacon and Pumpsie Green singled to start the remaining inning to be played. Smith struck out Chris Canizaro, then Richard Herrscher hit into a double play.

Koufax's Three Hitter Wins for Dodgers

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax, who took San Francisco to the cleaners for his 20th victory, has sent Red Patterson to the barbers.

Koufax' three-hit pitching and a 15-hit Los Angeles attack that provided the most runs lavished on a Dodger pitcher in 45 games, combined to give the National League leaders a 11-1 victory over second-place San Francisco Thursday night.

By taking the opener of the four-game series, the Dodgers dropped the defending champion Giants 6½ games behind, and into an almost impossible situation. If the Dodgers win half of their remaining 30 games, the Giants must win 21 of 29 to finish in a tie for the pennant.

The Dodger explosion, coming after a seven-game drought, also assured Patterson of a long overdue haircut. The club's assistant general manager had vowed not to clip his locks until the Dodgers scored four runs in one inning.

In the third inning before a crowd of 54,978—largest in the majors this season—the Dodgers trimmed the Giants for five runs.

While Koufax was posting his 20th victory, Dick Ellsworth won No. 19 as the Chicago Cubs edged Philadelphia 2-1. The New York

Smackover Figure Best in District

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Many coaches in Region 4AA think Mike Law of Smackover is the best lineman in the state. He's a big reason why the Buckaroos

Mets whipped Pittsburgh 7-4 in the only other NL game scheduled.

In the American League, Minnesota smacked 12 homers in a doubleheader and crushed Washington 14-2 and 10-1, Boston edged the first-place New York Yankees 4-3, the Chicago White Sox belted Cleveland 7-2 and Detroit downed the Los Angeles Angels 6-1. Kansas City and Baltimore were idle.

Koufax, bringing his record to 20-5, allowed only a single by Jim Davenport in the first, a homer by Orlando Cepeda in the second and a single by Jose Pagan in the fifth. Koufax struck out seven for a league-leading total of 246 and allowed only one walk.

The Giants started Bob Bolin. He lasted into the second inning when Billy Pierce, 3-10, took over. Ron Fairly accounted for the first of his four runs batted in with a single in the first before the Dodgers batted around in the five-run third.

Wally Moon's one-out single got the Dodgers started Tommy Davis then doubled and both scored on a single by Fairly. Frank Howard followed with his 23rd homer. A double by Willie Davis and a single by Maury Wills accounted for the final run of the outburst that put it away.

are the pre-season pick as the team to beat.

Law is a six-foot, 190-pound tackle.

Guy Hays, head football coach, has only one problem: Depth.

It is a perennial problem at Smackover, which has the smallest enrollment among the Class AA schools.

David Corley adds double-punch at Smackover's tackle slots. He's a 6-foot-3, 215-pounder. The other key members are quarterback Tommy House, center Gerland Leggett, and halfbacks Tommy Taylor and Ted Roberts.

An experienced defense bolstered by 190-pound Dan Jones is Hope's big hope. Jones is a center and a linebacker who, like Law, is highly regarded.

Defense will be Crossett's big weapon, too. Ronnie Tippen is a 180-pound guard who's a standout linebacker, too, and he can lead some mighty charges around end. He could be leading the way for backs Tommy Smith and David Young.

Magnolia returns 10 starters from the 1962 team and Coach Bill Hunt will have size at tackle. The men for the job at Mike Kent, a 185-pounder, and Jerry Petty, a 200-pounder. Also back are guard Jim Kregel, and halfbacks Jerry Gullett and Steve Efrid.

Camden Fairview won the region title in 1962, but the men that powered the way to the first Cardinal championship are mostly gone. Guy Teel, a 175-pounder, is tops among the returnees. Ronnie Keisler and Larry Gortney are top linemen.

Camden's John Jordan, a do-everything boy last year, returns at quarterback. He is one of three returning starters. Also expected to make some outstanding contri-

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — This should be Uncle Sam's year to win back the Davis Cup, Bill Talbert predicted today, but he warned that we'd better watch out for that old Australian fox, Harry Hopman.

The way Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston are playing, we really should bring back the cup," the former captain added. But we'll have to play it very smart and beat Hopman at his own game.

Harry has a remarkable faculty for getting his boys up to a peak at just the right moment. We butions to Panther hopes this year are fullback David Brodnax, a 195-pounder, John Coleman, a 170-pound center, and Roy Wilcox a 200-pound tackle.

must see to it that the same is done with Chuck and Dennis."

America's chances of recapturing the famous silver bowl, which has resided down under for 11 of the last 13 years, should be determined in the National Tennis Championships, opening formally today at the West Side Club.

McKinley, the Wimbledon winner, is seeded No. 1, followed by Roy Emerson of Australia, No. 2, and Ralston No. 3. Australia's No. 2 player, Ken Fletcher, is seeded fifth.

Emerson who already has won the Australian and French titles and who was champion here in 1961, makes his debut today against Chauncey Steele III, a 19-year-old Harvard student from Cambridge, Mass. Ralston, 21, the star of the recent zone matches against Mexico, faces Walter Johnson, 11th ranked junior from Hollywood, Fla.

McKinley is idle today, opening his tournament campaign Saturday against Orlando Zuleta of Ecuador. Also on the sidelines for the first day is Margaret Smith, the Wimbledon queen and top-seeded favorite from Australia, who drew an opening bye.

5 grades...5 prices...
choose the one gasoline blended in the pump
exactly to fit your car

Now you can select the one grade of top-quality Lion Gasoline that runs your car at its best. No more power than your engine can use—and no less than it needs!

The lower the octane rating your car needs, the more you can save—1¢, 2¢, even 3¢ a gallon—every time you buy gas! From now on, you can stop wasting money on octane rating your car can't possibly use.

On the other hand, don't buy ordinary regular gas when your car calls for a higher grade. The lower grade may damage your engine.

This is the smart new way to buy gasoline—each grade blended right in the new Lion selector pump—only at your Lion Oil Dealer.

Change to Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline—and keep the change.
